Junior School Pupils Plant Oak Trees

Project takes root

PUPILS at Melbourne Junior School have proved that from little acorns big oak trees do really grow. For the children, led by teacher Mr David Bell, have planted ten oak trees in Calke Park. The trees were grown from acorns planted in pots by pupils at the school seven years ago. The acorns were supplied by Melbourne Civic Society who have encouraged the children in the venture, together with the National Trust.

Derby Daily Telegraph - Saturday 29 March 1986