Potatoes

MELBOURNE COMPETITION

The results of the competition organised by Melbourne Allotment Holders' Association for the heaviest weight of potatoes lifted from ten sets has been announced as follows: Mr. E. Cooper (91 lbs.), Mr. A. Mellors (84½ lbs.), Melbourne Church of England Schoolboys (83½ lbs.), Mr. A. Pass (71 lbs.), Mr. E. Mills (71 lbs.), Mr. E. Webster (66 1bs.). The whole of the potatoes, two tons, will be given to the Royal Infirmary.

Derby Daily Telegraph - Monday 21 September 1931

MELBOURNE POTATOES
BOYS WIN PRIZE FOR HEAVIEST CROP

The annual potato competition organised by the Melbourne and District Allotment Holders' Association took place on Saturday. Each competitor had been given 10 sets of seed by the association, prizes being given for the heaviest lifts. The whole of the crop will be given to the Derbyshire Royal Infirmary. The result was declared as follows:—1 Melbourne Church of England Boys' School, 76 lbs.; 2 A. E. Mellors, 68 lbs.; 3 A. Cratchley, 50 lbs.; 4 G. Hoult, 48 lbs.; 5 S. Tivey, 47 lbs.; 6 T. Loydall, 44 lbs.

Derby Daily Telegraph - Monday 11 September 1933