Trips on the Bus

MELBOURNE INNS' OUTINGS.

There has been quite an epidemic of trips organised various inns for the holidays, and each has been successful and enjoyable., The White Horse trip was charabanc via Ashbourne, Newhaven, on to Buxton. Dinner was served at Buxton, and the return journey was via Taddington Hill, Chatsworth and Matlock, where tea was partaken of. The Crewe and Harper, excursion was via Atherstone (for lunch), then to Leamington, Warwick. The Melbourne Arms excursion was Coventry, where a good time was spent, and the return journey was via Tamworth. The Lamb Inn excursion started about eight o'clock for Bakewell and Brassington, and then to Matlock for tea, home being reached about 11 p.m. All were by road.

Derby Daily Telegraph - Wednesday 15 August 1923